

MGM Tactical Adds Midwest Sales Representative

Paul LaFrance, Director of MGM Tactical, a division of Mike Gibson Manufacturing, Caldwell ID, recently announced the addition of Tom Morrissey to its sales staff. Tom hails from Hampton, IL and will cover most of the Midwest states for MGM.

“ With an expanding target product line, including the newly announced ThermBright Passive Thermal Target line and MGM Tactical’s strengthening shooting range and rappel tower business, it was imperative to get additional boots on the ground in the Midwest,” stated LaFrance. “Tom will be a great asset for MGM,” he continued.

Tom comes from a manufacturer’s representative background and is well known in law enforcement circles in the Midwest. Stop by booth 20226 at the SHOT Show to renew acquaintances with Tom and see the complete line of MGM Targets and MGM Tactical offerings.
